

Hardened clients in probation

The future of probation and parole

Ilse Zielman – Policy advisor Dutch Probation Service

Regien van Uden – Policy advisor Dutch Ministry of Justice and Security

The future of probation and parole

Welcome

1. Introduction speakers
2. Welcome participants

*Fun fact: in this round table the following countries are represented:

Armenia	Czechia	Latvia	United States of America
Austria	Falkland Islands	Netherlands
Belgium	France	Portugal
Bonaire	Ireland	Romania
Curacao	Italy	United Kingdom

The future of probation and parole

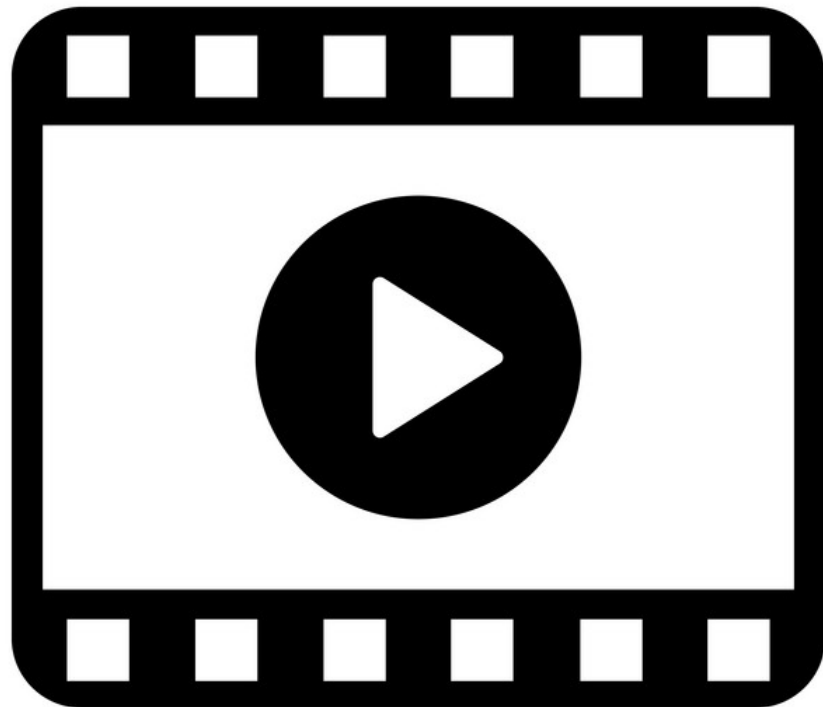

Outline Round table

1. Introduction video Reclassering Nederland (Dutch Probation Service)
2. Round of talks about:
 - whether or not this development is recognised
 - experienced dilemma's
 - best practices
3. Discussion
4. Summary and conclusion

The future of probation and parole

Introduction video Dutch Probation Service

Round of talks

Do you recognise this development?

How do you deal with this group?

- Methodologically
- In terms of managing risks (individually / as an organisation)

Which dilemma's do you experience in working with this group?

What best practices can you share?

Discussion

“Safety risks are part of the job”

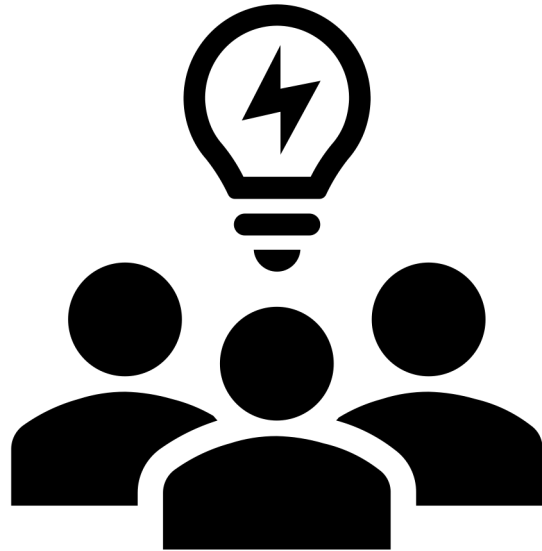

The future of probation and parole

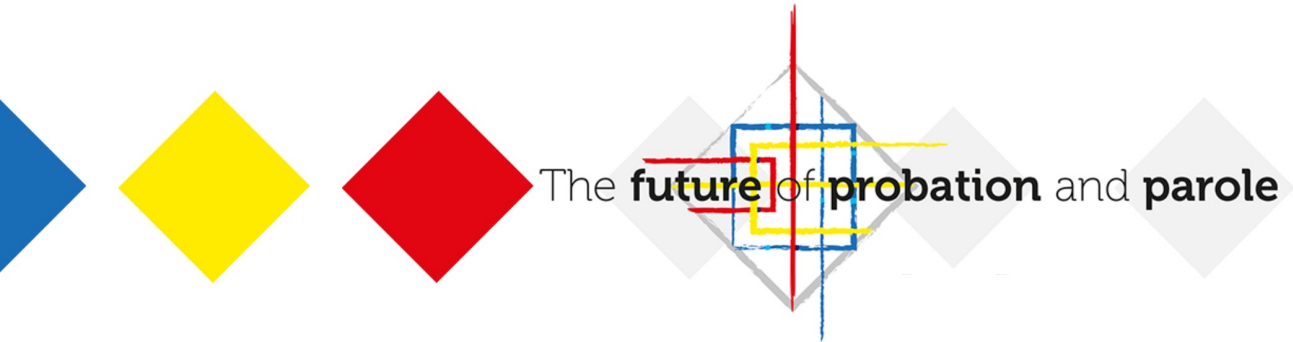

Discussion

“Guiding these hardened criminals towards behavioural change is impossible”

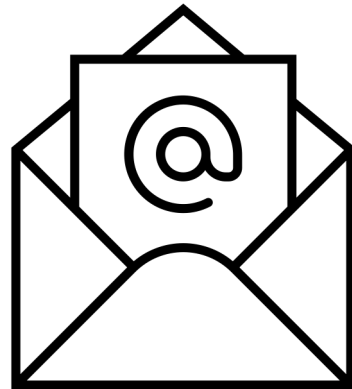

Summary and conclusion

The future of probation and parole

Let's stay in touch

i.zielman@reclassering.nl
r.m.c.van.uden@minjenv.nl